

ELECTION!

Craig, Findley
McKinney
Dominick

The most complete returns that could be obtained up to two o'clock Wednesday indicates that Congressman Dominick has been reelected. He has carried every county in the district. The vote reported at two o'clock was Dominick 13,996, McCravy 8,418, Sherard 4,574.

At two o'clock Wednesday afternoon the vote reported in the governor's race was Blease 65,352, McLeod 55,655, Laney 18,582. Blease and McLeod run over.

From election returns from every precinct in Pickens county the results of the first primary are as follows:

John E. Craig is elected state senator in a landslide vote.

Elbert Findley is elected to the house on the first ballot and J. O. Williams and J. M. Garrett will make a second race for the house.

J. T. McKinney is reelected supervisor in first race.

J. A. Findley led in the field for county commissioner, but failed of a majority. As no candidate in this race received a majority vote the four highest will be in the second race as follows: Finley, Bowen, Mullinax and Herd.

Christopher and Hudson will make second race for probate judge.

Complete returns, with the exception of Peters Creek and Cross Roads show the following vote for governor in Pickens county: Blease 2313, Cantey, 33, Coleman 103, Duncan 52, Laney 392, McLeod 1052.

These returns were received over telephone and there may be some slight errors, but will not affect the result as above stated. The returns are as correct and complete as can be had until the official count.

Much interest was shown in the different and Pickens county polled the largest vote in history. Many women voted.

Returns for state candidates early Wednesday morning show the following for governor: Blease leading with 55,655, McLeod second with 51,672, Laney third with 17,070. Blease and McLeod make second race.

Jackson and Owens probably in second race for lieutenant governor.

Dove reelected secretary of state.

Wolf probably reelected attorney general though he may have to run second race with Winter.

Duncan reelected comptroller general.

Craig elected adjutant and inspector general.

Harris reelected commissioner of agriculture.

For superintendent of education Swearingen and Hope will likely be in second race. Vote as follows: Swearingen 30,806, Hope 28,995, Mrs. Drake 26,931.

NOTICE TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEEMAN

There will be a meeting of the Executive committee in the Court House at 10 a. m., on Thursday, August 31st, to declare the vote. All come who can and if your boxes have not been sent in let each Executive Committeeman bring his box so that we can have all present. If you have any passing, where you can you might send it.

W. E. Findley,
Chairman.

LIBERTY NEWS LETTER

Good Revival Meeting Closes—Interesting Local Items.

Miss Oline Ball, of Greer, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Carl Crane. Misses Pett Chapman and Emmie Smith were joint hostesses on last week to a round of social events in honor of their attractive house guests.

Misses Katherine Boggs and Grace Mahaffey of Greenville, visited Miss Edna Boggs last week.

Little Miss Hattie Boon Boggs of Clemson, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. Junius Boggs.

Mrs. Jehu Shirley left Monday for a few days with relatives in Atlanta.

Mr. Clayton Smith of Easley, spent a few days last week at the home of his nephew, Z. L. Chamblin.

W. M. Hunt, who has been taking the summer course at Peabody college returned home on Monday.

Anna Laura Bush, Claudia Kennemur, Mary Moore and Myra Tincle Long recently enjoyed the delights of a little house party with Anna Callahan.

J. W. Long is at home from a summer course at Emory University.

Mrs. Sullivan, of Anderson, is enjoying a stay with her mother, Mrs. E. R. Horton, at the Brown House.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Richardson of Texas, are with relatives here.

The revival meetings which have been in progress here the past week at the First Baptist came to a close on Sunday night, at which service the pastor baptized nineteen into the membership of this church. Rev. P. M. Bailes of Greer was the able preacher who helped in this gracious revival. In addition to the above number several came into the church by letter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reark of Atlanta, recently visited their sister, Mrs. J. C. Rankin.

Rev. H. K. Knox was at Statesboro, Ga., for the week-end.

FARMER'S PICNICS

County Agent Bowen has arranged a picnic for farmers to be held on Mr. Henry Phillips' place four miles below Easley next Monday, September 4. Mr. N. E. Winters of Clemson College will talk on how to grow cotton under hot weevil conditions and Mrs. Kline will talk to the ladies. The Easley string band and Simpsonville quartet will make music. The meeting will begin at 3 o'clock and picnic supper on the ground.

A similar meeting will be held at Liberty Tuesday morning, September 5, with dinner on the ground. This will be an all-day meeting with a brass band to make music. Everybody urged to attend.

Mrs. C. G. Cothran, who is in training at the Southern Baptist Hospital at Columbia, returned last week after a very pleasant vacation spent with her sister, Mrs. R. E. Herd and other relatives in Pickens.

BIRTHDAY AND MARRIAGE AT CATEECHEE

Mrs. James A. Whiten, of Norris, surprised her husband, who is the efficient postmaster of Norris, last Wednesday, the 16th inst., by inviting several of their relatives and friends to a birthday dinner in honor of her husband who had been spared to pass the 50th mile stone on that day. While Jim's better half made him cut wood, wash pots and do all kinds of culinary work the day before Jim says he never once took the hint until his friends and relatives began gathering in on the morning of his birthday. While the writer could not be present, though we had an invitation, we have been told the table was loaded down with good things to eat and plenty left after everybody was satisfied their appetites and we believe every word of it for the writer was remembered afterwards.

Well the little matrimonial mill continues to grind and it grinds in either summer or winter, day or night, hot or cold. So boys bring on your "turn," you will always find the old miller at the throttle.

On Saturday night about 8 o'clock which was the 19th day of August, A. D. 1922, Mr. Phillip K. Alexander and Miss Emma Britton, both of Liberty, found their way to the little mill, spent a few minutes listening to the words spoken by the old miller which forever bound each from courting any more so long as one of them may live unless they wink on the slish or go to another state and obtain a divorce.

On Sunday following about 3.30 p. m., Mr. Belt Vaughn and Miss Maud Sped of Central made application to the old miller, J. Alonzo Brown, to be united as man and wife. As the writ presented showed the groom to be one year older than the bride and each were old enough to know what they were doing and as the groom had "jumped the broom" once before, (he was a widower) the old miller granted their request and two more souls went away from the little mill rejoicing. May the love of those two couples never grow old and may they never have occasion to regret the step taken is the wish of the writer.

Married, on Sunday, August 26, about 8 p. m., Mr. Joe Cash to Miss Grace Madden, both of Liberty, J. Alonzo Brown, N. P., at the throttle. Congratulations are now in order.

SINGING CONVENTION

The Hurricane Township Singing Convention will meet at Six Mile Baptist church, September 3, at 2 o'clock. Everybody invited.

MR. JAMES R. ROSS

Mr. James R. Ross, of Pickens, S. C., died Tuesday morning at a local hospital. He was forty-eight years of age. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by H. M. Patterson & Son. —Atlanta Journal.
